Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not disolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

The circumstances attending the sudden postponement of yesterday's session of the Peace Conference at The Hague, at which a vote was to have been taken on the proposed convention concerning the rights and duties of neutrals in the case of a maritime war, contain factors of vital importance to the whole world.

At the eleventh hour repudiation was made by Russia of the most important article in the final draught under the approval and guidance of Germany, and it was acknowledged that the strongest motive in the repudiation was political.

Germany has taken here a direction showing her active good will toward an encouragement of the American Atlantic fleet's voyage to the Pacific.

Its present practical effect is that Russia will be breaking no resolution of this conference if she proffers unlimited recourse to Vladivostok for the American fleet under any eventuality that may arise.

It should be kept in mind that the proposal Japan initiated in the present conference was for defining the regime to which belligerent vessels should be subjected to in neutral waters.

She contended that the circumstances of Admiral Rojestvensky's sojourn in Camran Bay furnished matter for international regulation, and she proposed that belligerents should not be allowed to remain in neutral roadsteads longer than twenty-four hours, save in exceptional cases.

Russia offered an antagonistic proposal; namely, that a neutral power should have the right to fix the duration of the stay.

Eventually a vote was taken on the modified proposal; namely, that the neutral shall have the right to fix the duration of the stay, but that if it should fail to fix the duration, then the stay should be limited to twenty-four hours.

Japan and Great Britain supported Russia, and Germany opposed the proposition. The United States refrained from voting. Later, Russia tendered a proposal, but did not ask for any vote upon it; namely, that in default of other dispositions by a neutral state belligerents should be forbidden to remain in territorial roadsteads longer than might be necessary to complete provisioning.

It was this sudden return to the attitude of no interference with neutral hospitality to a friendly belligerent that caused the countermanding of yesterday's meeting.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

MILITIA FORCE IN STATE OF VIRGINIA.

In the annual report of the adjutant-general of the army, made public yesterday, the following reference is had to the militia forces of Virginia:

It is recommended that regular troops, if only a company, attend all encampments of the militia. Example is the best instructor for them, and they will learn rapidly by having men of the United States forces in their midst.

It is earnestly recommended that one or two competent United States non-commissioned officers or enlisted men be sent around the State visiting the different organizations to aid them in a better understanding of the systematic instruction and training in target practice. Some few of the companies have quite recently evinced great interest in this practice and have made great improvement in gallery shooting, and if the enlisted men recommended could be sent here, the expense to the government would be more than compensated for by the knowledge imparted to these beginners.

That there should be better facilities for handling all supplies sent the State, the clerical force in the adjutant-general's office being too small and there being only one storekeeper. The adjutant-general's has but two clerks, and having to perform the duties of quartermaster-general, commissary-general, chief of ordnance, etc., his office is rushed with work during office hours.

The personnel of the militia of the State has improved during the past year, and no doubt will be still better, especially as the Jamestown Exposition will appeal to a better class of men to enter the service and thus make a most creditable military record there for their native State. The loss by fire on the twenty-third of January, 1907, of all arms, equipment, quartermaster, commissary and medical supplies in the hands of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues battalion is a great loss to the State, besides the souvenirs, trophies, papers, records, etc., of the battalion. The new full dress and complete new khaki outfit has been received recently, and a large portion has been shipped to the different companies.

The report to the War Department was make by Colonel Charles A. Dempsey, after a careful investigation into the strength of the Virginia State troops.

From 1903 to 1907 there was a decrease of 371 in the total militia strength of the State, and there are now in the State a total of 250,000 males available for military duty, but unorganized.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant.]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen; but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

This bond was written by the

To the Public:

We want to thank the hundreds of our friends who responded so heartily to our "Fall Opening" invitation. We naturally expected a great crowd, but must confess that even the great floor space of this popular house was unable to accommodate the enormous outpouring. We were simply overwhelmed with the vast throngs that attended our "Fall Opening" yesterday afternoon and evening. A large number of our friends were disappointed at not receiving the courteous attention we always give them, but on account of the great rush it was simply impossible for us to do better. For the benefit of all those who were unable to see our display we have decided not to disturb the display for several days.

Respectfully yours,

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 4, 1907.

NOTWITHSTANDING Secretary Taft's reception in Japan, the banquets and expressions of gush on the part of representatives of the United States and Japan, many observant people still see a war cloud rising upon the horizon. The proceedings at The Hague yesterday were significant as a practical warning was given to the Mikado. Russia virtually offered a base for Admiral Evans's fleet, and it developed that she was supported by Germany in her proffer. The Czar's delegates repudiated Japan's proposal to limit the stay of belligerents in ports and Russia can now grant the America navy unlimited recourse to Vladivostok. France sees elements of danger in the relations exciting between Japan and United States. In connection with the above the following extract from President Roosevelt's speech at Cairo, Ill., yesterday, when he was giving his views in regard to a big navy, is significant:

The policy of "peace with insult" is the very worst policy upon which it is possible to embark, whether for a nation or an individual. To be rich, unarmed, and yet insolent and aggressive, is to court well-nigh certain disaster. The only safe and honorable rule of foreign policy for the United States is to show itself courteous toward other nations, scrupulous not to infringe upon their rights, and yet able and ready to defend its own.

In addition to all this, it is stated that, acting under orders issued by Secretary of the Navy Metcalf, the League Island navy yard is rushing work on the four battle ships there, so that they may accompany the Atlantic fleet, which is to make the 13,000-mile journey to the Pacific coast. The orders are positive that the battle ships must be ready for sea duty by December 15. The government has been active in obtaining the coal the big fleet will use.

PAUL HAUPT, professor of Semitic languages in the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, who astonished Biblical students a year ago by a flat denial that Jonah was ever swallowed by a whale, has announced that he has finished his translation of the Songs of Solomon. "The Songs of Solomon," the professor says, "were written fully 600 years after his reign, which was in 950 B. C. The book is a collection of love songs, dealing particularly with the love of Christ, who was to come, for man. It was written in the neighborhood of Damascus." Solomon's Songs are seldom read by a great majority of Bible students. Their purpose has never been definitely ascertained, and the professor's suggestion is about as vague as others that have been made during the past thousand or more years. The soundest critics say the Songs are a collection abounding in extravagant figures of speech, the real meaning of which is unknown at this late day. Some theologians, however, imagine they see the gospel figuratively portrayed in Solomon's Songs; other writers are confident they refer to the glories of the Christian church. The most generally received opinion, however, is that the bold imagery employed is intended to picture the celestial Bridegroom and the church triumphant. This interpretation, however, is about uncertain as the others.

BRUNO O. WAGNER was arrested in Washington yesterday for what would seem to be a humanitarian act—pushing an invention by which two railway trains may pass each other on the same track. There have been many unsuccessful attempts to bring about this desideratum, but they have invariably been followed by disastrous results. The "inventor" believes he has solved the problem. Wagner has been traveling through the country trying to get the railroads to adopt his invention and was in Washington yesterday to see President Finley, of the Southern Railway. Wagner believes that he is divinely directed to see the railroad presidents for the benefit of humanity. He hails from Seattle, Wash.

THE county authorities today made two more arrests in attempts to solve the mysterious assaults alleged to have been committed upon a young man and a young woman near Rosslyn last Sunday evening. The father of the young woman and the young woman herself are now in the county jail. It remains to be seem how much light will be thrown on the case by these arrest. So far, it seems that the officers of the law have been on cold trails, and it is hoped that this last move will eventually unravel the matter, and that it may not be as the Curtin murder in this city twenty-one months ago, which is as much of a mystery now as it was the morning the mutilated remains of the unfortunate man were found.

MR. SAMUEL GOMPERS, president of the American Federation of Labor, and a number other residents of Bloomingdale, a suburb of Washington, are raising a fund to enjoin a colored man from occupying a house which he bought. In the deeds to the houses in the neighborhood and in the original deed to the house bought by the colored man there is a covenant that none of the dwellings shall be sold to colored persons. So it seems that colored people are not to be allowed to dwell alongside of white people in Washington, the very Mecca of the colored race.

VOTERS who have not registered for the November election, will have their last opportunity to qualify at the polling places of their respective wards tomorrow.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 4.

Secretary Straus, before the Cotton Manufacturers' Association today, put up to incoming Minister Wu a question that is likely to tax the ingenuity of the Chinese statesman for an answer. "China took $20,000,000, less from you last year," he said, in his address to the cotton men, than the year before. How much of this was due to a silent, non-importation agreement, which was used so effectively by us preceding the revolutionary war, and which is known by the modern name of boycott. I leave you to figure out. "The Secretary also delivered a warning against too high a tariff. "If you build your tariff walls too high in this country, you will encourage high walls on the other side which are known by the name of discriminating duties. We are striking that wall now," he said.

Scores of the remonstrances against executive approval of the Oklahoma constitution have reached the Department of Justice. Among the latest is from Henry Asp, general counsel in Oklahoma for the Santa Fe Railroad. He attacks the initiative and referendum clause. Reports from the southwest that the President may reconsider his determination to approve the constitution, find credence in official circles here. It is pointed out that the twenty days time in which the President must attact his signature, has not begun to run, because the President has not yet received a certified copy of the constitution.

To determine the wear of railway equipment, the Interstate Commerce Commission has appointed a committee. One of the difficulties encountered in the rate investigation is the varying percentage charged to deprecation by the railroads. The committee will determine the average life of ties, cars, rails, and other units of equipment, in order that that the commission may have a postive basis on which to conduct their investigation.

The government is preparing to push its suit against the tobacco trust. J. C. McReynolds, of the special counsel who has charge of the investigation and the filing of the papers in New York, conferred today with the attorney general.

The resignation of J. H. Barr as director of the Jamestown Exposition, which was made final recently, will be withdrawn tomorrow when the directors of the exposition company meet, according to information received by government officials here today. Secretary Cortelyou has persuaded Mr. Barr to continue at the head of the expcsition, it is said.

Foreign vessels may be used in transporting the coal to be used by the Atlantic fleet on its cruise to the Pacific, according to an opinion rendered by the Attorney General and made public today. The government will not be bound by the application of the coastwise trade laws, the attorney general holds, when sufficient vessels can not be had, or the charges made by them are excessive and unreasonable. This opinion upholds the contention of the secretary of the navy and the President who have authorized the chartering of vessels of foreign registry for transporting coal to the Pacific coast.

D. D. Edwards, on trial in Chattanooga, Tenn., for the murder of Sam Brooks, a negro, under cross-examination said: 'I have shot and probably killed fourteen men in my time." He said that a majority of the killings occurred in the Kentucky mountains and during a labor strike in Chicago. Edwards is known as a Kentucky feudist.

Rather than endure separation from his wife, which might have followed his transfer to another post, it is believed that Claude H. Perry, a soldier stationed at Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, shot and killed his wife, Elizabeth, Wednesday night, and then committed suicide in Brooklyn. The tragedy was revealed yesterday when their bodies were found in their apartments, in Third avenue. Perry left a note indicating that his action was due to an apprehension that he was soon to be transferred from Fort Hamilton, and that this would cause his separation from his wife. Both were about 25 years old.

The Italian government has officially taken hold of the situation at Sumrall, Miss., and it would not be a surprise if the affair would be of international importance The Italian consul at New Orleans, Count G. Morroni, reached Mobile yesterday afternoon and at once commenced an investigation of the situation at the lumber town. He was more anxious to hear the story, however, of Frank Scagliord, the leader of the Italian colony at Sumrall, who was a few days ago decoyed from his home at night by a bogus message from New Orleans and unmercifully whipped by a mob of white men.

Walter McClintock, an aged farmer, living five miles northeast of Noblesville, Ind., and his son, Enoch, were killed by James Hensley, thirty years old, of Indianapolis, yesterday afternoon. Hensley had been paying attention to Mary McClintock, daughter of Walter McClintock, and had called at the farmhouse. It is said that he and Enoch quarreled, Hensley drawing a revolver and shooting the young man. The father of the girl then emerged from the farmhouse, and, according to Hensley's story, attacked him with an open knife, whereupon Hensley shot and killed the elder McClintock. Hensley was arrested.

The city bloodhound of Asheville, N. C., was yesterday called out again to give chase to an unidentified negro who attacked Miss Gracie Cook, a pretty fifteen-year-old girl, while out walking on Beaumont Mountain. The negro was lying in ambush. He threw a heavy stone at the girl and made a leap from the bushes for her. She fled down the mountain, screaming as she ran. The negro was chased by a posse of officers, led by the city's bloodhound, into the mountains, where the trail was lost. The estate of George W. Vanderbilt at Biltmore was searched yesterday for an unidentified negro, who entered the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cauble, at Biltmore, and chloroformer their fourteen-year-old daughter.

Virginia News.

Joseph T. Moss and Miss Hattie Cummings both of Mount Gilead, Loudoun county, were married yesterday.

Miss Lula Foster Fletcher, second daughter of Mr. Joshua Fletcher, living near Upperville died on September 24th, aged 16 years.

Rev. George Boardman Taylor, for thirty-three years president of the Baptist Mission in Italy, died in Rome yesterday. He was born in Richmond, December 27, 1832.

James N. Moore, of Reidsville, N. C., son of John R. Moore, of that city, and Miss Bessie Downs, daughter of Cicero E Downs, of Lincoln, Loudoun county, were married yesterday.

In a runaway accident at Clearbrook, Frederick county, yesterday, Miss Lillie Bursey sustained a fracture of the skull, and her mother, Miss Lavinia Bursey, escaped with a few bruises. A passing train caused the trouble.

William J. Fowler, of Baltimore, thirty-two years of age and married, a lineman on the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railroad, came in contact with a live wire while stringing wires along the line yesterday, and was almost instantly killed.

M. D. McBride, a young attorney of Houma, La., and Miss Nellie Cleveland Watson, daughter of the late A. S. Watson, for years one of the most prominent farmers of Albemarle, were married yesterday at the residence of the bride's mother in Charlottesville.

Miss Matilda Slaughter died at the home of her nephew, Mr. Fielding Slaughter, at Norfolk, Wednesday, aged about 70 years. She was the last surviving child of the late William Slaughter and Harriet Ficklen, his wife of Fredericksburg where her remains were brought for interment yesterday evening.

G. N. Shumate, charged with the theft of valuable packages from the Adams Express Company, for which he was a messenger, was in Richmond yesterday convicted and given a year in the city jail. Shumate is the third man to be convicted on this charge, the other two having pleaded guilty and been given shorter terms.

Developments of yesterday may result in the solution of the mystery surrounding the discovery near the Jamestown Exposition grounds of a headless and dismembered body packed in a box. A deserted hut, built of tin, in a thick woods, a few yards from the spot where the body was found, has been discovered. It is now believed that the mutilated body is that of a girl.

The Charlottesville branch warehouse of Charles King & Son, of Alexandria, wholesale grocers, had a narrow escape from being wiped out by fire Wednesday night. Shortly before midnight flames were discovered on the first floor of the building, and it was only after a hard fight of forty-five minutes that the fire was conquered. The loss by fire was very small, but the damage done by water and smoke will probably amount to $2,000. The building was insured.

"Senator John W. Daniel, of Lynchburg is my choice for the next President of the United States. I think that the South should come to the front and formulate the policy of the party and assume the leadership in the coming campaign." This statement was made in Richmond yesterday by J. Taylor Ellyson, lieutenant governor of Virginia, who has been State chairman of the democratic State central committee for a number of years.

No Evidence for Indictment.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—The special grand jury that investigated the charge in Standard Oil's pamphlet of defense today reported to Judge Landis that, despite the claim in the pamphlet that Standard Oil was only one of many big shippers that received special rates from the Chicago and Alton, President Moffatt of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, was unable to give evidence of even one specific instance on which to base an indictment.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

The actual business sessions of the various divisions or branches of the triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States began in Richmond yesterday when all of the bodies received reports of committees and the presiding officers assigned work to the committees.

The business sessions of the House of Bishops began at 10 o'clock. Presiding Bishop Tuttle immediately laid before the house of bishops a statement of his official acts during the recess of the general convention.

The session of the house of bishops was, of course, executive, the hall being previously cleared of all but regularly accredited bishops. A considerable amount of preliminary business was done, including the appointment of standing committees and the reading of the report of the presiding bishop. One of the most interesting matters to come up for consideration was the petition from the Diocese of Georgia, asking for a division in that state, the church having grown tremendously within the past several years. Previous to adjournment the bishops listened to an address by Archbishop Tuttle, of the West Indies, on the work among the colored people in his territory.

The House of Bishops considered a resolution from the Diocese of Los Angeles, Cal., asking for an appropriation of $5,000,000, to be placed to the credit of a fund to be used for the support and maintenance of aged and indigent clergymen. The question caused considerable debate and was referred to a special committee appointed for the purpose.

The order of business for the introduction of petitions and memorials brought a flood of recommendaitons for a reduction of the membership of the House of Deputies, and it is likely that a special committee will be raised to consider them. A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a commission to prepare a hymn book for use in mission work, which commission is to report at the 1910 convention.

One of the most interesting matters to come up for consideration was the petition from the Diocese of Georgia asking for a division in that State, the church having grown tremendously within the last several years.

In the house of deputies a beautiful tribute was paid to Archbishop Nuttall of the West Indies, who appeared before the house by special invitation during the morning session. He was escorted to the platform and greeted with resounding cheers. Dr. H. McKim, president of the house of deputies, thanked the archbishop for his visit to the convention and the archbishop responded briefly, complimenting the American church on the progress it has made.

The Archbishop spoke feelingly of the destruction of church buildings in Jamaica by the recent earthquake and of his visit to England for aid. He said that visit would not have been necessary he believed, "if that great outflow of help and sympathy, promised and manifested at first, had been allowed to come into the island from the United States." Again, in conclusion, he told the convention that if any members desired to aid the suffering church he hoped they would do so.

At noon the deputies received the Bishops of London and St. Albans and Bishop Montgomery, secretary of the British Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. The foreign clergymen were escorted to St. Paul's by a joint committee of the houses.

Dr. McKim welcomed the visitors, praising the work of each with appropriate remarks. He referred to the origin of the church in the United States, to which the Bishop of London responded. "He spoke in earnest advocacy of the churchmen with backbone who will go out and meet the people. The bishop spoke against those who sit in their churches until the people go in to meet them. The other visitors responded briefly to their welcome. Bishop Jacobs of St. Alban's extended the convention an invitation to send a deputation to the pan-Anglican congress to be held in London in June next. Bishop Montgomery presented a message of congratulation, signed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

Among the more important matters that came up for consideration in the House of Deputies was the objection raised by several members on Wednesday to the incorporation into the minutes of the proceedings of the term "His Excellency" in reference to the President of the United States. The matter provoked considerable discussion. The objection was finally overruled by the president, who ordered that the term be incorporated in the records.

The delegation from Pennsylvania presented a memorial from that State asking for the segregation of the white and negro churches in Pennsylvania and the appointment of a negro bishop to minister to the people of his race. This question will occupy the attention of the convention later in the session. Bishop Gibson, of Virginia, and other prominent churchmen, will oppose the election of additional colored bishops.

From the diocese of Springfield, Ill., was received a petition asking communicants to aid in the building fund for Sts. Peter and Paul Cathedral at Washington and to remember it in their wills. A resolution was then adopted commanding the construction of the national Cathedral.

The New Jersey diocese presented an invitation from Atlantic City inviting the convention to meet there in 1910. The diocese of Los Angeles secured the indorsement of a memorial asking that a committee be appointed to raise the sum of $5,000,000 to be added to the general fund for the relief of clergy and members of their families.

The national church in Brazil applied to be made a missionary district of this church.

After the president of the house of deputies had announced the personnel of its membership in the twenty-three joint committees and a number of other special committees, announcement was made that a special deputation representing the original thirteen colonies would go to Williamsburg, Saturday morning for the services at Bruton Parish Church, when the Bible from King Edward and a lectern from President Roosevelt will be accepted, and the full membership would make the pilgrimage by special train Saturday afternoon.

Both houses adjourned for the day after a very short session in the afternoon, in order to allow the committees an opportunity to organize and get down to work.

A most interesting feature of the day was the general meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Board of Missions of the Church, which meeting was held in Holy Trinity Church, the Right Rev. Robert A. Gibson, bishop of Virginia, presiding, at which an offering approximating $222,352 was presented by the auxiliary to the board. This magnificent tribute was taken in charge by officating clergymen who conveyed it to the City Auditorium, where, in the presence of an immense crowd, it was officially counted in the afternoon. The treasure was carefully guarded during the day by special detectives. The offering comes from every part of the Christian world.

As the huge golden dish bearing the rich offering approached the chancel packages of banknotes, tied with ribbon, and heavy pieces of gold fell from the overloaded salver to the floor. Contributions were dropped upon the growing pile until the salver could hold no more. The golden dish upon which the money was conveyed is a gift from the Church of England, the same having been made through the Archbishop of Canterbury.

A reception to members of the House of Bishops and their families and to the visiting bishops was given last night by Bishop Gibson, of the Diocese of Virginia.

Brilliantly illuminated, the residence was also beautifully decorated with flowers, palms and Southern smilax. Against this setting of scenery, in the hall red carnations were most artistically used. Pink asters and dahlias were used in the drawing rooms and in the dining room the color scheme was developed in green and white. The receiving party included the Bishop of London, the Bishop of Virginia, the Misses Gibson, Bishop Montgomery, of London, and Miss Montgomery, his daughter.

Governor and Mrs. Swanson have issued invitations for a reception to be given Saturday night in honor of the bishops, to which the delegates to the House of Deputies and members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Daughters of the King are also invited. No session of the House of Deputies will be held Saturday.

Suicide of a Forsaken Woman.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—The life tragedy of pretty Marie Sexton was revealed here today when her body was found in the rear of the home of Joseph Gillespie. She had sent a bullet into her temple. In her waist was found the following letter to Gillespie:

"My Darling Joe: How can you be so mean to me when I am in trouble? All my friends have turned against me with scorn and now you, too, have forsaken me. You, the one man I loved above all else in the world. And I thought always that you loved me as dearly as any one could. You talk of me now as if I were a witch. Darling, please return to me. My heart is breaking and my life is a wreck. What have I done that I receive the cold shoulder from every one; no home, and the place I now call home I'll have to part with. Clothes to be bought for myself and (baby). Then to a hospital to work for my board. But here is the worst of all. What am I to do after I leave the hospital with my dear little infant?".

The suicide's body will be taken back to Hot Springs, Ark., for burial. She is said to have come from there a year ago.

Missing Young Woman.

New York, Oct. 4.—N. L. Archer, the rich Brooklyn bookbinder, is keeping the wires hot between New York and other Atlantic ports, north and south, for news of his daughter, Emma, whose disappearance almost simultaneously with the finding of an oarless boat adrift in Sheepshead Bay led to the suspicion that the girl had been drowned. The young woman was known to be on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and her father feared that she had committed suicide or had perished by the capsizing of the boat. Hope has been revived, however, by Captain Thomas Bell, of the fishing craft Irene, who says he saw a young woman answering Miss Archer's description picked up from a small boat Wednesday morning by a long, low sloop which came out of the mist to seaward.

In Quest of Husbands.

Quarantine, N. Y., Oct. 4 —Another big batch of European girls looking for American husbands was brought today by the White Star Liner Cedric. Like the 1,002 girls who landed recently, the new immigrants believe they can make American men happy and are confident they will be able to find worthy husbands in this country. There were just six hundred in the party, all of whom came in the steerage. Just half the contingent hailed from Ireland. The girls manifested the greatest interest in everything they saw and seemed to regard every man who approached them as a prospective husband. They say that if the quest for husbands fails, they will still be able to support themselves in better style than they lived at home.

On His Way to Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 4.—President Roosevelt took lunch on board the steamer Mississippi as she was passing Marian, Ark. The flotilla at that time was steaming slowly and it seemed improbable that the party could land at Memphis before 2 p. m.

Death of the Mikado's Mother.

Tokio, Oct, 4 —The Mikado's real mother, Nakayama, who has held the highest rank at the Imperial court, is reported to have died today. The Mikado is officially supposed to have been a son of the deceased Empress Asako, but Nakayama's son was adopted by the late ruler, Komei-Tenno, who died in 1867 as his heir.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and rud chilblain disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by druggists. 25c.

Missing Bandits.

Santiago de Cuba, Oct. 4.—Captain Daugherty of the Rurales will start an investigation as soon as he arrives here from the scene of the recent campaign against the Mayari bandits to determine what has become of eighteen or twenty of the outlaws who, following their recent capture, are now reported as missing.

Daugherty had already left the field, his presence there being no longer required, and there is a strong suspicion that the Cuban officers left in charge of the prisoners put the latter to death.

The Cubans are known to have been intensely wrought up against the outlaws, and even before Daugherty's departure several of the officers expressed the opinion that a few informal executions would have a salutary effect. No one suspected that they would actually carry out such a plan, and if it is proved that there was a massacre, the offenders will be severely dealt with.

Secretary Taft in Japan.

Nagasaki, Japan, Oct. 4.—The most elaborate preparations have been made here for the reception of Secretary of War Taft, who, with his party, will arrive tomorrow for a brief stay before his departure for Manila. Officialdom will turn out in force to extend a welcome to the visiting Americans. The Taft party, on board the steamship Minnesota, is on the inland sea en route from Kobe today.

Pennsylvania Day.

Jamestown, Va., Oct. 4.—Headed by Gov. Stuart hundreds of Pennsylvanians participated in the celebration of Pennsylvania Day at the exposition today. They were joined by thousands of Virginians and visitors from other States as well. Only the fact that the day was cloudy and threatening in the early hours kept the crowd down.

Senator Platt's Denial.

New York, Oct. 4.—Denying absolutely that he married Mae Wood as his answer to her suit for divorce, Senator T. C. Platt today obtained an order from Justice Ford in the Supreme Court for "a discovery and inspection and permission to take copies of papers describing in her petition."

Hindoos Driven Out.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 4.—At Danville, Wash., last night, an angry mob drove a small party of Hindoos across the line into Canada, sending a shower of missiles after them. A few shots were discharged, but no one was injured. The Hindoos had found shelter in a building at Danville following their escape from capture.

Suffering from Appendicitis.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Surgeons decided today that an immediate operation upon Edmund Rostrand, the poet and playwright is necessary to save his life from an attack of appendicitis. The operation will be performed by the famous surgeon Pezzi.

Troubles in the East Indies.

Calcutta, British India, Oct. 4.—Coming as the direct result of the prolonged agitation for "self rule for India" an uprising by students last night culminating in an assault on the police in which half a hundred officers were injured, had aroused the greatest fear that the Indians munity may be at hand. Today a strike by native cab drivers which has already resulted in much violence has greatly added to the danger. Many English and other foreign residents of the city are preparing to flee to ships in the harbor for protection.

Strikers are now picketing the streets, keeping a close watch for non-union cab drivers. Wherever one is found an attack of his vehicle results. An English registrator residing in a cab was stoned and severly injured.

Today the native newspapers give glowing accounts of the fighting extolling the bravery and patriotism of the rioters. They boast that 100 casualties resulted among the police.

SCHOOL BOARD.

At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present Capt. Herbert Bryant, chairman, and Messrs. Thompson, Stabler, Yates, Ramsay, Thomson, Bradshaw, Boothe, Carter and Smoot.

Mr. Yates again reported that the $500 appropriated for repairs to buildings had been exhausted, but there was still some minor work to be done in order to make safe and preserve the property. He asked authority to have such work done. The committee on schoolhouses and furniture were authorized to have the absolutely necessary work done.

Several bills for repairs and supplies were ordered to be paid.

The Clerk stated that the Superintendent was quite sick at home but had requested him to report that the schools were all open and running smoothly and also to ask the board to consider the matter of an increase of pay of four teachers who are entitled to an increase. Action on the matter was deferred.

Mr. Carter asked that permits be granted to the children of a non-resident who, however, conducted business in the city.

After the by-laws on the subject had been read and after a debate on the matter Mr. Yates gave notice that at the next meeting he would offer a resolution to amend the by-laws on that subject.

The matter of changing the hours of the opening and closing of the afternoon sessions of the schools came up on a suggestion that the colored schools be opened and closed earlier so that the white and colored schools would not close at the same time. This it was said would end the disorders which frequently occurred where the white and colored boys met on the streets on their way to and from school.

Mr. Yates, favored a change in the hours of the white schools and after some debate the matter was referred to the committee on studies and discipline.

The clerk reported that the bid for supplying the schools with fuel had been opened in the presence of the chairman and that of the three bids submitted those of Mr. T. J. Fannon for coal and of Mr. DeW. Aitcheson for wood were the lowest and the Clerk was directed to award the contracts to Messrs. Fannon and Aitcheson, respectively.

Mr. Yates said that as the teachers were paid their full salaries for the month of September they were supposed to organize their schools during the week in which permits were issued and have them ready for study at the first of the succeeding week; in several instances, however, there has been much confusion at the opening; wrong book lists had been given children and that after some had purchased books, changes to other books had to be made; this he said, had caused much complaint. He thought that before getting so excited about getting more pay they might take the trouble to properly regulate their schools and suggested that the matter be referred to a committee for investigation. In the absence of the Superintendent no action was taken and the board adjourned.

CHAS. WEISS RELEASED.

Charles Weiss, who has been held in Washington for several days in connection with the assault on John W. Mullen, who was shot while walking in the woods near "Dead Man's Hollow" in the vicinity of Rosslyn, Alexandria county, Sunday afternoon, was released shortly after midnight last night, he having fully established his alibi.

Crandal Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county, who approved of his action, is now preparing to begin an investigation into the movements of Jacob Weiss, father of the girl who was with young Mullen when he was shot.

Mr. Mackey is quoted as saying: "I have witnesses who say they saw Jacob Weiss returning to his home from the direction of 'Dead Man's Hollow' after the shooting occurred, and I myself saw him go to the rear of his home before the affair. I have also found that a revolver, the property of Emile Weiss, was kept in the house, and the owner says it is not now in its accustomed place."

In a letter postmarked Philadelphia and which is published in a Washington paper this morning, the writer, who signed himself "W. P.," declares he was guilty of shooting Mullen. "I had it in for John," says the writer, "and I settled accounts with him. That is why he says he does not know whether it was a white or black man. He knows it was a white man, and so does his companion. I fixed my man, and he knows who it was, as well as I do, and so does the woman."

Mullen continues to improve. He sat up most of yesterday. The bullets will be extracted from his face and body Monday.

Jacob Weiss and his daughter Amelia, upon whom the assault is alleged to have been committed, were taken in custody today and placed in the county jail. The arrests were made at the instance of Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey, and it is said an examination of the case will be made this evening.

Mullen has requested that Amelia Weiss be brought to see him this afternoon and that they be left alone. He says he is sure that if he has a talk with her he can induce her to tell the truth of the affair.

SENT BACK TO JAIL.

An item in this column a few days ago referred to two mechanics (old offenders) who are capable of earning from four to five dollars a day, but who toil about long enough to realize sufficient money to take a prolonged spree. They were brought before the Police Court and sentenced to 30 days on the chain gang, but were later released upon promising to procure work and lead another life. Yesterday one of the pair was arrested on the same chronic charge and upon being made to face the Police Court he was sent back to jail for 30 days. His companion was picked up yesterday while drunk, and this morning he was sent to his old quarters. Both are subject to the chain gang.

WILL BUILD NEW STEAMERS.

The directors of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, at a meeting held Wednesday, unanimously decided that the company should build two larger steamers than those now in service. These steamers are to be the finest and most modern steamboats afloat, and will ply on the route between Washington, Alexandria and Norfolk. Mr. John Callahan, second vice president of the company, made a statement to the board setting forth the inadequacy of the present steamers as to freight and passenger capacity, showing the large increase in both since the organization of the company, 17 years ago, and proposing that two new steamers be built not less than 300 feet in length, and with a beam of 45 feet on the water line and 52 feet on deck, to be fitted with every modern device known in steamboat construction. His recommendations were unanimously adopted and he was directed to make plans and call for bids without delay. The steamers Washington and Norfolk will be sold, but the company will retain the Newport News.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man, charged with being drunk on the street, was sent to jail for 30 days.

John Shanks, charged with vagrancy was dismissed.

Joseph Russell, charged with stealing a bundle of whips from a car, was dismissed on that charge, but fined $5 for trespass.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

W. H. Jones, through Attorneys Henry E Davis and Leo P. Harlow, yesterday filed suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railway Co., for $25,000 damages. The declaration alleges that while putting on the brake on top of a freight car in the railroad yards at Bayview, Md., the brake staff broke, throwing the plaintiff to the ground, several cars passing over him before he was extricated from his position. As a result of the accident, the declaration alleges that the plaintiff sustained a compound fracture of the left forearm, a compound fracture of three toes of the right foot, necessitating amputation, and a fracture of one rib.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

At St. Mary's Church this evening at 8 o'clock there will be service consisting of the Litany of the Sacred Heart, Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, benediction of the Most Holy Sacrament and reposition after the regular monthly exposition. Rev. M. Gallegher, of the Apostolic Mission House, will preach a sermon on "Devotion to the Angels referable to the Sacred Heart of Jesus," which is the intention of the League of the Sacred Heart for the current month. Father Gallegher is well known to the members of St. Mary's Church. His sermons during the early part of the present year were very much appreciated for their lucid presentation of Catholic doctrine. All are welcome.

WHIPPED BY HIS MOTHER.

Special Officer Mason last night arrested a colored boy named Robert Mason for breaking a jar containing chewing gum in a drug store in the northwestern section of the city while he was secretly endeavoring to extract some of the contents. He was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton turned him over to his mother for correction. After the adjournment of the court the boy was thrashed at the station house by his parent.

OYSTER SUPPER.

Oriental Court, Junior Order of Mechanics, gave an oyster supper last Wednesday night at Mr. C. H. Zimmerman's dining rooms in Market alley. The supper had been prepared in Mr. Zimmerman's best style, and all present had an enjoyable time.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at all drug stores.

SUGGEST SMOKESTACKS WITH HINGES.

The advisability of taking action to prevent the "draws" in the railroad bridge crossing the Potomac river from being opened for the convenience of every tug passing up and down the river, has been brought to the attention of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia in a letter from Robert N. Harper, president of the American National Bank. Mr. Harper suggests that the tugs plying between Georgetown and that portion of the river below the railroad bridge shall be compelled to have smokestacks working upon hinges, or in some other manner, so that they may be lowered to an angle enabling them to pass under the bridge without the necessity of the draw being opened. This method, prevails in London as well as in cities of this country. The delay caused by the necessity of opening the draw for tugs towing sand scows is a source of chronic complaint to many Alexandrians who are employed in Washington.

THIRTY NEW BUILDINGS.

Plans are now being prepared by Milton Dana Morrill and Oscar G. Vogt, architects, for thirty new houses to be constructed on the block bounded by Peyton, Prince and Commerce streets, in the western section of the city. The buildings will be of the detached double house type; each will comprise six rooms and bath. The fronts will be set back from the street to give grass plats and porches. The houses will be very artistic in appearance; shingles, stained a soft green, being largely used upon the exterior, the trimmings will be of cream white while all interior wood work will be stained a rich brown. The block will have at each corner buildings for stores with apartments over same

It is the intention to let the contract for the entire block within the next two weeks and to push the construction, finishing the buildings ready for occupancy early in the winter.

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY.

John Shanks and Wellington Morrisett who said they were itinerant umbrellar-menders, were arrested yesterday by Officers Bell and Lyles for vagrancy and dipsomania. They were arraigned in the Police Court this morning, when it was shown that the first-named was a newcomer, who said he was on his way to Crewe Va., and promised, if released, to make his way to that place. He was allowed to leave, but his companion was sent to jail, subject to the chain gang, as it was shown that he had been loafing about the city during the past four or five weeks.

INJURED BY A FLY WHEEL.

Mr. Joseph Reeves, engineer at the power house at the Potomac railroad yards, was seriously injured a day or two ago by being thrown violently to the floor by a fly wheel. Mr. Reeves was endeavoring to stop the engine on the quarter as it was about to come to a halt on the centre, and had taken hold of the wheel while it was revolving. The injured man was taken to his home where he secured medical attention.

"THE SHOPLIFTER."

The attraction at the Opera House next Thursday night will be "The Shoplifter," an English melodrama direct from London after a two years run. The play will be beautifully staged, a carload of scenery being carried for that purpose. During the drama the latest song hits will be introduced by a number of French and English singers and a number of clever dances will be introduced.

THE TWO-CENT RATE.

According to statements made in Virginia newspapers, certain persons whose business or inclinations take them from Virginia to Washington are saving money by purchasing tickets to this city and then taking the electric cars to Washington. This is done to take advantage of the two-cent rate now in operation in this State.

ITALIAN GIRL MURDERED.

Rose Riportelle, a pretty Italian girl, twenty years old, was murdered yesterday in New York by the man she had tried to kill. She fired one bullet, which lodged in his left side, and, although weak and fast losing consciousness, he wrested the revolver from her hands and fired, inflicting a wound which caused her death in fifteen minutes. The shooting was witnessed by groups of girls on their way from home to the high school, a few blocks away.

Allee Riportelle, who is twenty-four years old, is a well-to-do Italian, and owns a string of barber shops in the South.

Only a few days ago he went to New York from Norfolk, Va., where he had lived for the last two years, to get barbers to go South with him. The girl he had deserted learned that he was in the city and followed. The girl swore she would kill him, if he did not return to her, but he laughed and said she loved him too well to have him die.

She learned yesterday that he had planned to return to Norfolk last night, and in the afternoon she followed him from one shop to another.

With several friends he emerged from a store on Fulton street and was confronted by the girl. She had a revolver concealed beneath the folds of her skirt, and when he admitted that he had prepared to go South she drew the weapon and fired.

Ripertelle, with the bullet in his side, sprang at the girl and struggled with her. In a moment he had the weapon. The crowd that surrounded the struggling pair saw the fight for the weapon and everybody kept a safe distance; but all saw the Italian press the revolver to the girl and fire.

She fell, dying almost immediately, and Ripertelle staggered across the sidewalk, and fell into the arms of a policeman. Ripertelle will recover.
